Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), to tell Us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until We agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- diminishes or reduces the risk We insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business, should know as an insurer; or
- We waive your duty to tell Us about.

If you do not tell Us something

If you do not tell Us anything you are required to, We may cancel your contract or reduce the amount We will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Third Party Rights

Subject to any rights a beneficiary may have pursuant to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), no third party will be able to enforce any rights under this Policy.

Fraud

If any claim be in any respect fraudulent or if any fraudulent means or devices be used by you or anyone acting on your behalf to obtain any benefit under this Policy, or if any loss hereunder be the wilful act occasioned by you or with your connivance, We, without prejudice to any other right(s) you might have under this Policy, shall be entitled to refuse to pay such claim.

General Insurance Code of Practice

Change in circumstances

You must tell Us as soon as practicably possible of any change in the information you have provided to Us which happens before or during any period of insurance.

When We are notified of a change We will tell you if this affects your Policy. For example We may cancel your Policy in accordance with the Cancellation and Cooling-Off Provisions, amend the terms of your Policy or require you to pay more for your insurance. If you do not inform Us about a change it may affect any claim you make or could result in your insurance being invalid.

This insurance is not automatically renewable. Before this insurance expires We will advise you, through your intermediary, of whether We intend to offer renewal, any information We require to do so and if so on what terms. It is important that you check the terms of any renewal offer before renewing to satisfy yourself that the details are correct. In particular, check the Limit of Indemnity and Excess(es) applicable and to ensure the levels of cover are appropriate for you.

ATIA and the supporting regulations made under the Act deem cover into certain policies and provide that the Terrorism exclusion to which this Insurance is subject shall not apply to any "eligible terrorism loss" as defined in ATIA.

Any coverage established by ATIA is only in respect of any "eligible terrorism loss" resulting from a "terrorist act" which is a "declared terrorist incident" as defined in ATIA. The Terrorism exclusion to which this Insurance is subject applies in full force and effect to any other loss and any act or event that is not a "declared terrorist incident". If any or all of the Underwriters have reinsured this Insurance with the Australian Reinsurance Pool Corporation, then any such Underwriters will not be liable for any amounts for which they are not responsible under the terms of ATIA due to the application of a "reduction percentage" as defined in ATIA which results in a cap on the Underwriter's liability for payment for "eligible terrorism losses".
